WHAT IS NEW ZEALAND RISING?

New Zealand Rising is an alliance of separate groups and individuals from all across New Zealand who believe in a better future. We are many different people with different views, however we all share a common vision for the future.

"We, the people, stand united for a New Zealand that is respectful, includes everyone, and is free of government overreach."

"Kia tūkotahi tātou ō Aotearoa, hei whakarangatira tātou i a tātou. Herea te Kāwanatanga, kia kore e pēhia te mana o te tāngata."

Our website contains a directory of all groups around New Zealand that share this vision.

Newsletters, past and present can be viewed and downloaded here.

*From the Editor: I recently received this notice on our email platform:
"Why are emails being clipped in Gmail and how to prevent it? "*

"Gmail may clip your email. In this case, its content is shortened and hidden behind a "View entire message" link at the bottom of your email. Important information can then be missed by your recipients." When I did this quick query on my "non-Google" search platform, "Was google funded by DARPA?", this answer popped up:

"Yes, some of the research that led to Google's creation was funded and coordinated by the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA) as part of efforts to develop techniques for tracking individuals online. This connection highlights the collaboration between the U.S. intelligence community and Silicon Valley during the early days of the internet."

I suggest to our readers who are using GMail, dump it, in favour of ProtonMail or the like.

Drs Sam and Mark Bailey "Shine a Light"

PHA-NZ/Australia are pleased to welcome back Drs Sam and Mark Bailey to our "Shine a Light" on 4 June. They will share their thoughts on the fallacies of germ theory and virology, and how allopathic medicine invents thousands of diseases when most of the time there are just a limited number of responses that the body can manifest.

A Farewell to Virology by Dr Mark Bailey was first published in 2022. The 28,000-word treatise exposed thoroughly the entire virus model. As reported in our last issue, NZDSOS installed a large billboard in Tauranga and plan on expanding their campaign nationwide. Likewise Groundswell and Voices For Freedom are producing banners and billboards, and according to Bryce McKenzie of Groundswell, "Have received great support all over NZ for our banners. The focus is on getting them erected around the National Field Days site leading up to Field Days in June. 11th to the 14th. He added, "We are also doing canvas banners so people can hang them on their fences. We want people to use good structures as we need them up till after the next general elections. We are also getting bumper stickers done with "Quit Paris" on them, major push over the next 18months." saying, "You'll see signs like this popping up around the country. RNZ National and Morning Report radio Audiences Fall to Lowest Levels in More Than Five Years

By Shayne Currie

RNZ National's radio audience has fallen to its lowest number in more than five years, according to figures released today.

GFK data shows RNZ has a cumulative audience of 467,700 – a fall of 21,900 (4.5%) since the previous ratings release in November 2024.

In the first survey of 2020, RNZ had an audience of just over 654,000 and was more than 110,000 ahead of its commercial news rival Newstalk ZB. RNZ's radio audience continues to decline sharply – where it was once the market leader, it now sits eighth behind Newstalk ZB and six music stations. That's balanced with an increase in its website audience and overall trust. RNZ National's radio audience has fallen to its lowest number in more than five years, according to figures released today. Farmer's Weekly: Paris Agreement Poll Results

Last week's poll question was based on the 'Minister denies hefty bill for missing GHG targets' article. We asked readers: Should New Zealand withdraw from the Paris Agreement on greenhouse gas reductions?

A majority of voters thought New Zealand should leave the Paris Agreement, with many believing it was nonsensical for a small emitter like New Zealand to be involved.

Others, however, thought it was vital for retaining trading partners and it was simply the right thing to do.

NZ's "Chumocracy" and the suppression of Prof Robert MacCulloch

New Zealand's "soft corruption" has been called out this week by leading economics professor Robert MacCulloch of the University of Auckland. He's launched some heavy broadsides at the way that political and business elites in this country are ruining the economy and the political process by their dysfunctional hold on power in which dissent and debate are suppressed using patronage and threats.

MacCulloch's criticisms come about in the announced closure of his website, which he says is due to pressure from Cabinet Ministers and others. His main complaint seems to be that New Zealand is run by a “chumocracy” of mates whose cosyism is leading to national decline.

This is the most important post I've made to date, by far . It's an interview with journalist Whitney Webb explaining - Digital ID, where the idea came from, who are the stakeholders and beneficiaries of it, the immense power and control you will cede to Govt and corporations. I have spliced in NZ video to illustrates the points that Webb makes throughout the video. Report Lays Out How Biden Covered Up Deadly Side-Effects Of COVID Vaccine

The Biden administration was aware of potentially deadly side effects associated with COVID vaccines and chose not to alert the public about the risks for months, according to a bombshell Senate report obtained by The Daily Wire.

According to the report from the Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, officials knew as early as February 2021 that the vaccines were associated with myocarditis (inflammation of the heart muscle) and pericarditis (inflammation of the thin sac surrounding the heart). Still, they waited to warn the public until June as they pushed the vaccine on Americans. Read more here

WHO Pandemic Agreement Approved by Member States, Ushering in a Dangerous New World Health Order

U.S. escapes WHO treaty enabling fast-tracked experimental vaccines, censorship of dissent, and global surveillance systems.

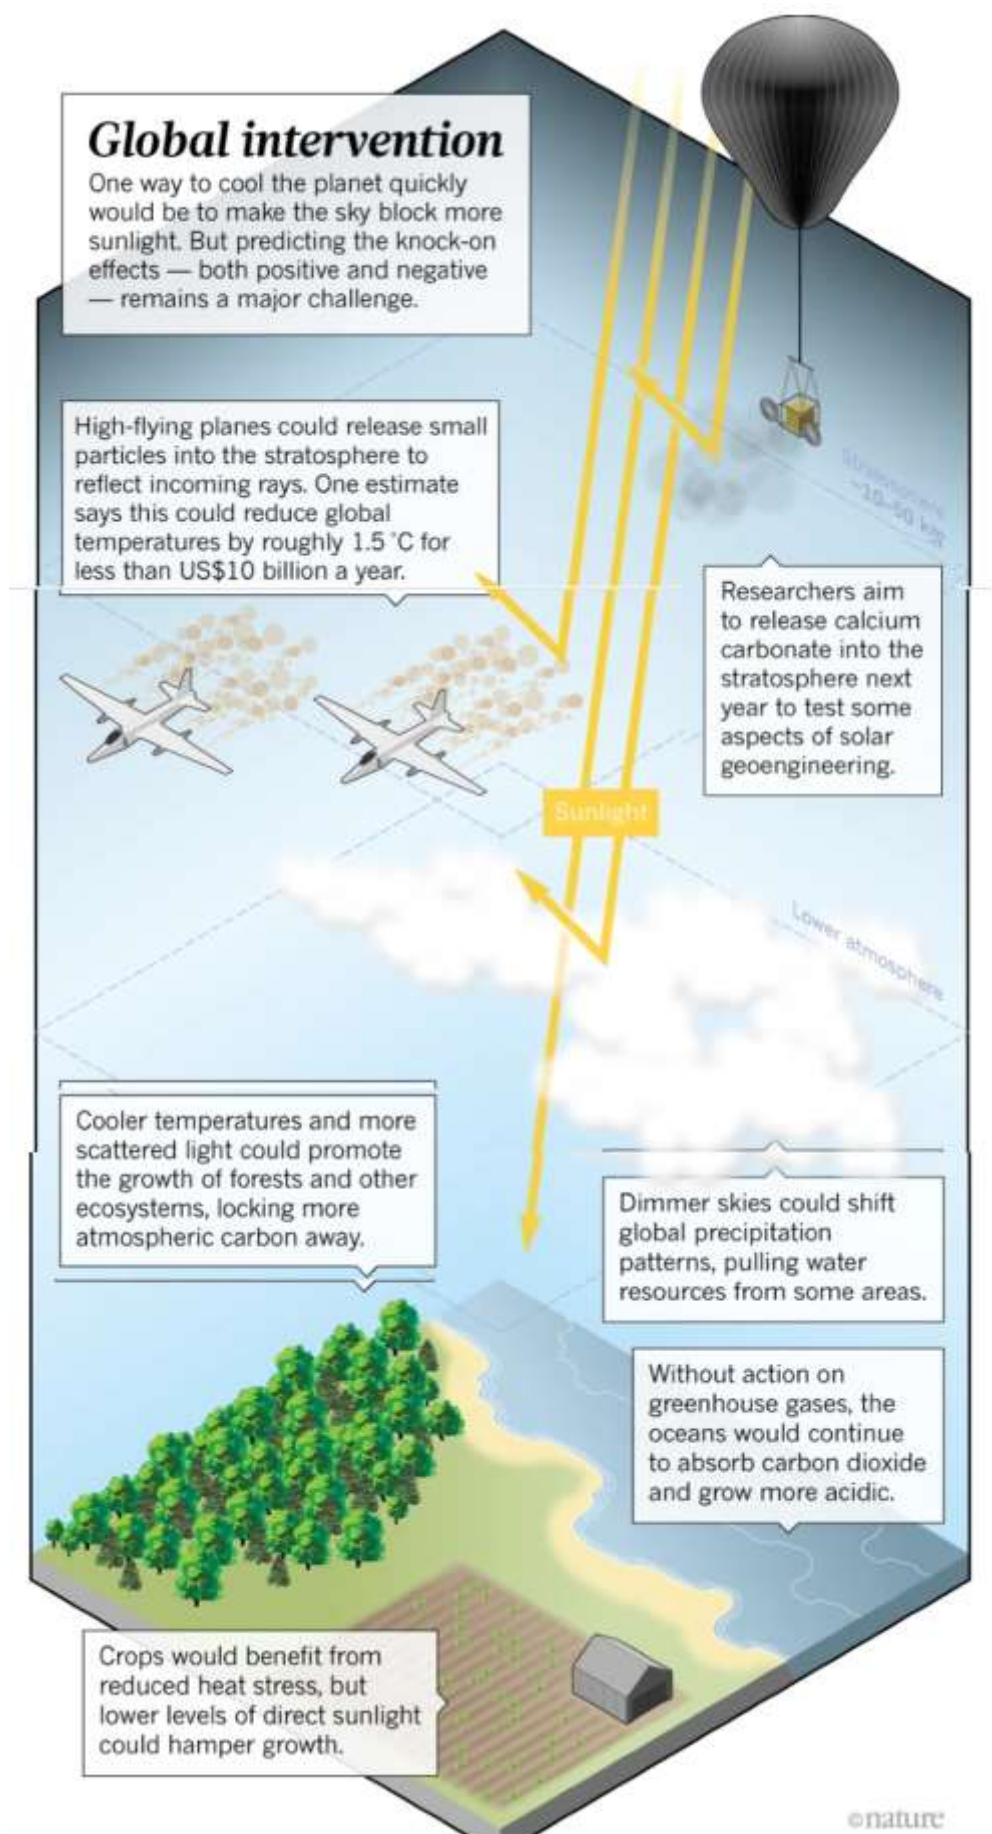

What's in the treaty

- Fast-tracked emergency-use authorizations with no built-in safety guarantees
- No liability or compensation for vaccine injuries — only “non-binding advice”
- Coordination of global pathogen and health data via WHO-run surveillance systems
- Digital infrastructure for tracking and compliance
- Narrative control under the guise of fighting “misinformation”

The Rat King and his Patronage Network

"Once the devil catches you by a thread, he'll soon be leading you around by a rope."

By Julius Ruechel

Regardless of whether leadership is elected, appointed, inherited, or seized by a coup, all political power ultimately depends on entangled threads of patronage that grow up underneath that political power, fueled by mutual obligation and self-interest. And as it grows, it begins to warp the minds of all those who get caught up in its net.

During the Roman Era, their entire political system revolved around elaborate patronage networks in which political support was openly exchanged for preferential access to resources, benefits, or favors. They didn't even try to hide it — the Roman patron-client relationship was a formal and visible social structure that influenced elections, judicial decisions, and economic outcomes. Elites Are Preparing Their Bunkers: Here's Why

How to Prepare for the Dangerous Cold Climate

1. Prepare for: record cold, food shortages and rationing, civil unrest, and international conflict, as history and nature repeats.
2. Expect Politicians to impose: "food equality" and "food justice" and rationing, seizure of your food if you have "more than your fair share", i.e. you are prepared!
3. Get informed, stay informed, inform friends and family.
4. Be prepared to be shocked emotionally, intellectually.
5. Have a minimum one year food supply.
6. Be prepared to defend your home, food, family. Next to the mob looting the grocery store in your neighborhood, your biggest threat will be your neighbor next door!
7. Worst case - Have a sanctuary away from urban areas.
8. Turn the tables on the turmoil that is coming— a plan to thrive not just survive!

How do we prepare for this new COLD ER

Here's why the elites are preparing their doomsday bunkers, and what they expect to happen in the near future, and why dates like 2030–2040 are being mentioned.

Dr. John L. Casey, former space program consultant, national space policy advisor to the White House and Congress, NASA headquarters consultant, and space shuttle engineer speaks on the subject.

The link below provides an evidence-based thread on what the elite expect to happen, why they are all building doomsday bunkers, why there are massive projects in the Arabian

Peninsula, and why this is being kept quiet.

Another post from me on behalf of Wao Aotearoa

Monique Kelly and the team at WAO is excited to invite the homeschool students to participate in the Southern Lakes Model United Nations 2025, a full-day event of diplomacy, debate, and international problem-solving for students across the Southern Lakes region with the Otago Model UN team facilitating the day!

Date: Friday, 18 July 2025 Open to: All secondary students in the Southern Lakes area from years 9-13

This year's Model UN promises an exciting, energetic, and empowering experience where students take on the role of country delegates, tackle real-world issues, and sharpen their critical thinking, public speaking, and teamwork skills.

Whether they're seasoned debaters or first-time participants, this is a fantastic opportunity for students to connect, collaborate, and learn more about global challenges in a supportive and inspiring environment.

UN Youth Aotearoa New Zealand is proud to present Vision 2035 — our bold, future-focused strategy to empower rangatahi and transform the landscape of youth development in Aotearoa.

Explore "Fossil Fuels"

We've been conditioned to believe that oil and gas come from ancient dinosaurs and dead plants compacted over millions of years. That's the textbook explanation. But it's not the whole story.

The Earth is not a static rock; it's a dynamic, living machine. At its core—literally—is a high-pressure, high-temperature reactor: the boundary between the Earth's solid mantle and liquid outer core. Down there, deep beneath the crust where organic matter doesn't exist, carbon, hydrogen, and metallic catalysts interact in extreme environments. Through natural chemical processes—think of them like industrial synthesis on a planetary scale—hydrocarbons are created from the Earth's primordial materials.

This isn't speculation. Laboratory experiments have replicated these conditions and shown that methane and other hydrocarbons form abiotically. We've also discovered hydrocarbons in places where organic matter has never been—like the deep ocean crust and on other planets. You think Saturn's moon Titan has forests? No. It's literally raining methane there. Nature doesn't need biology to make hydrocarbons.

The point? Oil doesn't come exclusively from fossils. It also comes from the deep Earth, where geothermal reactions are constantly producing it. That means oil isn't a "finite, dying resource." It's being renewed all the time—just very slowly, and far below where we usually drill.
