WHAT IS NEW ZEALAND RISING?

New Zealand Rising is an alliance of separate groups and individuals from all across New Zealand who believe in a better future. We are many different people with different views, however we all share a common vision for the future.

"We, the people, stand united for a New Zealand that is respectful, includes everyone, and is free of government overreach."

"Kia tūkotahi tātou ō Aotearoa, hei whakarangatira tātou i a tātou. Herea te Kāwanatanga, kia kore e pēhia te mana o te tāngata."

Our website contains a directory of all groups around New Zealand that share this vision. Newsletters, past and present can be viewed and downloaded here.

From the Editor: Many of my freedom-loving friends are exhausted, even traumatised, from the uptick in news and events from the past few years. Many are unplugging from their Telegram and Signal feeds, not to mention Facebook and others. But having a listen to NPR or Radio NZ starkly reminds us that the mainstream media is still spewing lies by omission and outright deception. As I've said before, "They're either being played or being paid." It's as if we're on different planets - those who are awakening to the deep corruption, and those who are blindly following the narrative. So what's a person to do? Try to keep in touch with what's going on. These are important times, and our children will thank us for doing our part to help clean things up. But balance that with keeping good company, reading good books, loving good things, and cultivating soul and body as faithfully as you can.

Community Mourns the Loss of Shane Christie

Shane Christie's death is being felt as a hard blow throughout the NZ freedom community.

"When we lose one of our own... we grieve, we feel deep gratitude for the gift of connection & time spent, we ensure their legacy continues." wrote Penny Marie when hearing of the recent loss of Christie.

In a post earlier this year, after an interview she'd done with Shane, she spoke highly of the man, "We need more people like Shane Christie in the world. He's humble, compassionate and curious. He's dedicated his life to helping people. We help one another when we humble ourselves and ask tough questions," which is what Shane did.

Hello Grief. . . Now What Do I Do With You?

"You take one day at a time, one moment at a time, one breath at a time, knowing you are doing your best.

After nighttime and darkness, comes dawn and daylight. What follows winter is spring. What follows rain, is sunshine. Life has shown me that what follows suffering, is a sense of hope. What follows grief is joy, and what once felt like an endless abyss of personal darkness, comes a tinge of light, a belief that one day you too, will feel complete again. It will not be the same, it will be different, however, you would have come through your dark night of the soul and be able to look back with unspeakable gratitude of the life you once shared with your beloved. Taken from an article I wrote in 2020 for Luxury and Entertainment magazine.

Posted today to help those mourning the loss of their friend Shane."

Stop New Zealand's Electronic Road User Charges (eRUC) Surveillance System

From: Citywatchnz.org

This petition is running on change.org and is titled "Stop New Zealand's Electronic Road User Charges \(eRUC\) Surveillance System".

Within the first 7 days, over 14,900 had signed the petition. The petition is related to the Government announcement of a Electronic Road User Charges (eRUC) system to replace fuel taxes.

Here's portion of the petition text:

"To: New Zealand Government, Ministry of Transport, Members of Parliament

What's at Stake? The upcoming electronic Road User Charges (eRUC) system will use GPS and digital tracking to monitor vehicle movements for charging purposes. This means the government will collect detailed data on where, when, and how far every vehicle travels— affecting every driver in New Zealand.

Why This Matters:

1. This system builds a massive surveillance framework that risks your privacy and freedom of movement.
2. Data breaches and misuse of such sensitive vehicle location data are real and documented risks.
3. It sets a precedent for linking vehicle tracking with government digital ID systems and Central Bank Digital Currencies (CBDCs), leading to unprecedented citizen monitoring and control.
4. Once in place, reversing this system will be extremely difficult, gradually normalizing constant government tracking.

A protest against the Electronic Road User Charges (eRUC) in Wellington is scheduled for Sunday, September 3, 2025. It will take place at Parliament Grounds, starting at 1:00 PM

International Billionaires Funding Trans Industry Grift & One NZ Connection

From: Penny Marie, Let Kids Be Kids

Gender Minorities Aotearoa is just one of many 'TQ' charities in New Zealand. They are all tax exempt, most of them lobby the government, and this one has made some concerning publications.

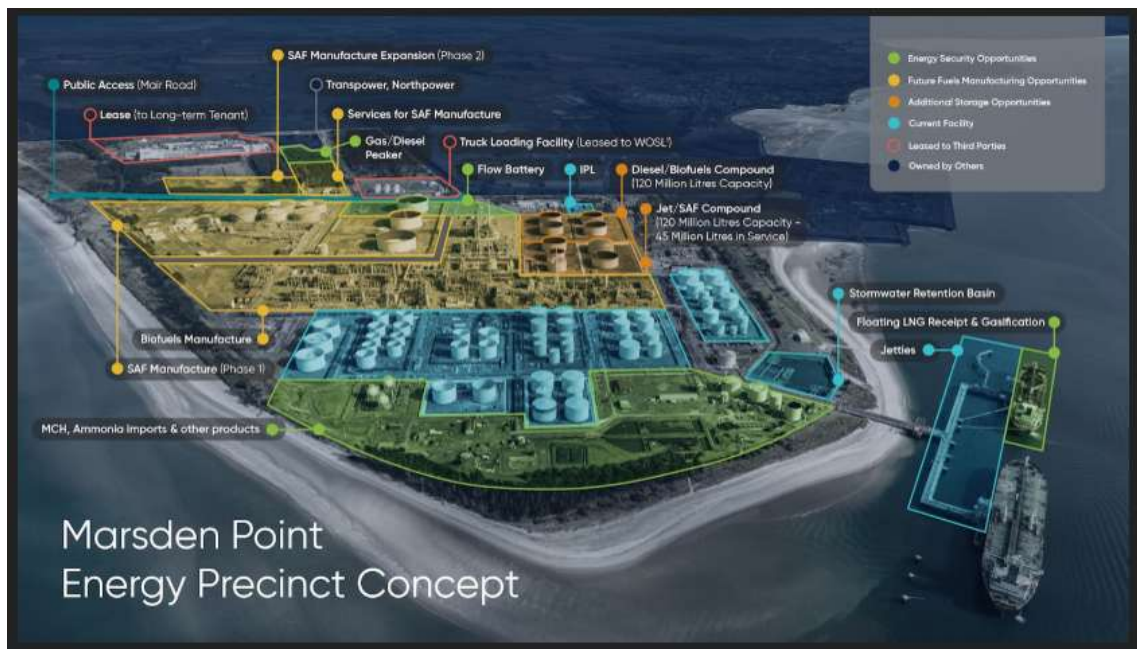

Here we show a connection between the Open Societies Foundation (George Soros), ARCUS Foundation, Stryker, the International Trans Fund... and Gender Minorities Aotearoa.

Why are these massively wealthy foundations and people so intent on growing the TQ industry globally? Why, money of course. Many many post of money.

Marsden Point's Past, Present, Future

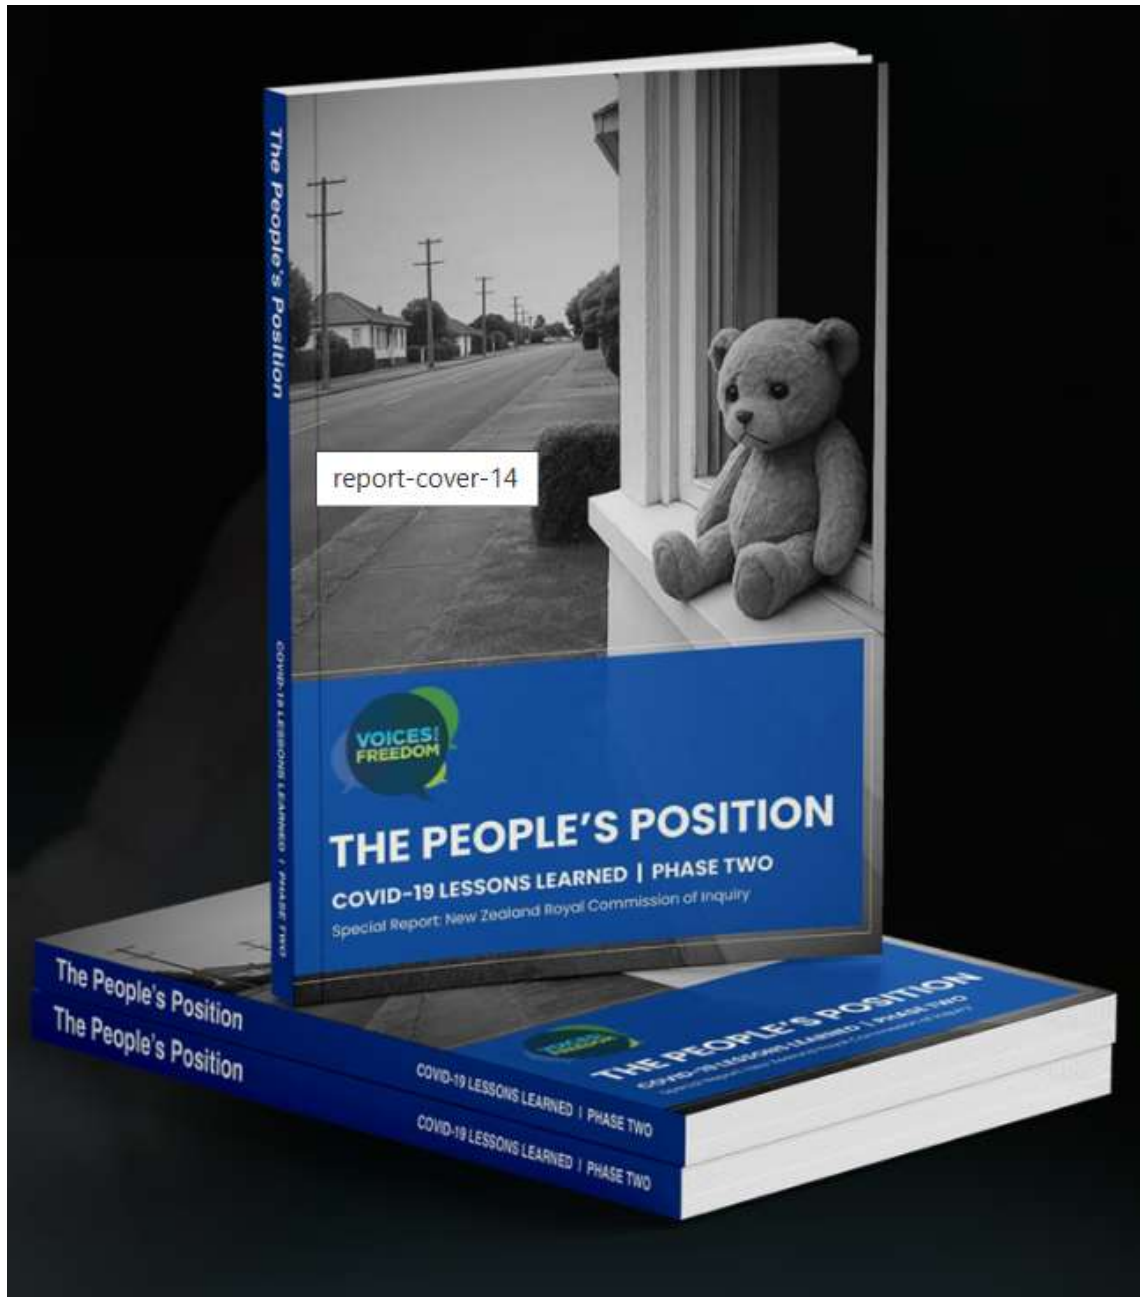

Marsden Point operated as New Zealand's only oil refinery for nearly 60 years.

At its peak in the 1980s, it employed about 1700 people. When it was closed in 2022, nearly 240 people lost their jobs.

The site, now run by Channel Infrastructure, operates as New Zealand's largest fuels import terminal, storing and distributing 40% of the country's fuel.

In recent weeks, a slew of ministers have visited. New Zealand First has floated the idea of introducing New Zealand's first Special Economic Zone (SEZ) to help pump investment into the site and life into the Northland economy. Read the full story here.

Book Made Freely Available to All A Milestone & Important to Read

Voices for Freedom's book on lessons learned from COVID has been made freely available to all.

The People's Position comprises a series of concise, referenced summaries intended to be read and absorbed in short sittings. Each section distils complex topics into clear, digestible insights. The book doesn't attempt to cover every angle. It aims to highlight what the Commissioners likely don't know they don't know. Each section cuts through the noise to surface what was censored, ignored, or dismissed, but is too important to overlook.

Why It Matters

The Royal Commission's findings will help define how New Zealand remembers and learns from the COVID era. But if they're only hearing one side, what hope do we have for real accountability?

Created as a foundational briefing document for Phase Two of the COVID-19 Inquiry, this 250+ page report sets out the key decisions, flawed assumptions, and far-reaching consequences of the COVID response, especially the truths the public was never meant to see.

Covid-19 Revisionism, How Did We Get Here?

Luxon claims Ardern was summonsed. But she wasn't.

VIDEO CREDIT: STUFF

By Damien Grant

We're having a moment. New Zealand. Feigning outrage over the unwillingness of Ardern, Robertson and Hipkins to front to phase two of the Royal Commission into the Covid pandemic.

Let's consider this. For a moment.

Phase one, instigated by Ardern, was to look at things we did well, things we did badly, and how to prepare for the next pandemic. The focus was on lessons learnt.

Phase two was set in motion by the current regime and had a different objective. This was to "review the decisions taken by the government in New Zealand's response to Covid-19 during 2021 and 2022." Read the rest of Grant's opinion piece here.

Digital ID is Coming | Judith Collins Shifts Gear

From: Holyhekatuiteka

Digital ID is coming, anyone with a half a brain will observe with great concern what we are seeing roll out in the UK.

Closer to home, more Australians are slowly realising that they all will have a UN WEF Bill Gates backed global digital ID.

Last night a Sky Australia panel critiqued a pathetic UK TV advert using convenience as the main driver for everyone to get on the digital ledger. They aren't wrong, although it's not convenient for us, it's convenient for THEM, the control freaks, as we slip towards a global government.

"Watching that ad confirms one thing, they are lying to you, they will track where-ever you are, your medical records what you buy, we will be living in a surveillance society, there's another agenda" says one of the panelists. Unfortunately it's probably too late for Australia: the digital framework is in place (as it is here in NZ) and relevant digital legislation has been passed with the social media ban for under 16s requiring biometric verification for EVERYONE to use the internet. Then censorship, tracking and monitoring of what you do on a daily basis will begin.

This week Judith Collins' press release outlined what she says is New Zealand's opportunity to "fully participate in society" (read that bit again) by having a digital ID and a digital wallet. Read more here.

Sudden Deaths Skyrocket Among Covid-Vaccinated Pilots

A new analysis has revealed that sudden deaths among younger airline pilots continue to surge years after Covid "vaccine" mandates were imposed across the aviation industry. The findings are raising alarm about a growing pilot health crisis with direct implications for passenger safety.

Dr. Kevin Stillwagon, a retired airline captain with 33 years of experience and an immunology educator, is warning that the data cannot be ignored. He points to a spike in early pilot deaths, a wave of incapacitations, and a disturbing rise in near-miss incidents as evidence that the industry is facing a crisis unlike anything it has ever seen. A member of the U.S. Congress has drafted legislation that would strip federal funding from schools that don't allow parents to apply for religious exemptions from vaccination requirements for their children. The GRACE Act, or Guaranteeing Religious Accommodation in Childhood Education Act would target elementary and secondary schools, as well as local and state educational agencies. The legislation would not require state authorities or educational institutions to offer religious exemptions, but it would deny federal funds to those entities if they maintain vaccine mandates that don't include provisions for religious exemptions. The GRACE Act is a response to the "alarming erosion of civil rights" that occurred under the Biden administration, said Cait Corrigan, an advocate for medical freedom and religious liberty. - Source here.

The Department of Government Efficiency has terminated 123 "wasteful contracts" over the past five days with a ceiling value of $5.3 billion and savings of $4.2 billion. As of Aug. 15, DOGE had saved an estimated $205 billion for the federal government, amounting to $1,273.29 saved per U.S. taxpayer. The DOGE website's Greatest Hits section said that among the "strangest, most baffling uses" of government funds cancelled by DOGE include a $1.5 million grant to the Center to Advance Reproductive Justice and Behavioral Health for “black pregnant/postpartum women and birthing people.” Other cancelled contracts include a $6.9 million grant for mental health development from “an antiracist approach” and a $10 million award for “decolonizing the curriculum.” - Source here.

The Canadian Taxpayers Federation have a similar “greatest hits’ section. It handed out ‘Waste Awards’ to politicians and bureaucrats who wasted our money in the dumbest ways. They sent out a survey asking who people thought should have “won” the Waste Awards. Here’s what thousands of supporters said: About 90% said Trudeau is the most worthy recipient of this year’s Lifetime Achievement Waste Award. About 40% picked Global Affairs Canada for spending $51,000 per month on booze, $8,800 on a sex toy show in Germany and $12,000 on a show where seniors in other countries talked about their sex lives. A close second was Statistics Canada - 39%. It spent almost $1 million making a podcast, but it wasn’t about statistics ... Those bureaucrats made podcasts about climate change, arts and crafts, misinformation and gender identity. More here.

The CDC’s untested childhood vaccine schedule is on trial. Literally. On Friday August 15th, Rick Jaffe, Esq. filed a federal lawsuit on behalf of Dr. Paul Thomas, Dr. Kenneth Stoller, and Stand for Health Freedom. The lawsuit challenges the CDC’s 72-dose childhood vaccine schedule on the grounds that it has never been safety tested as actually administered. The CDC had never tested the complete schedule for safety; and that the Institute of Medicine has been asking the CDC to do so for almost 25 years. The courts are being asked to force the CDC to change the childhood vaccine schedule from Category A recommendations, which include mandates, to Category B — shared decision-making between families and physicians — until the CDC does the testing its advisors have recommended for decades. Seventeen EU nations, the UK, and Japan already operate this way: no mandates. For decades, the agency has demanded proof of harm while refusing to do the studies that could provide it, and physicians who attempt to fill that research gap or challenge the schedule or ACIP’s narrow contraindications and precautions framework are ridiculed and delicensed. Dr. Paul Thomas is one example. That era is over. If the CDC wants to claim the vaccine schedule is safe? Prove it. This case is 100% funded by the community. Check out the campaign: More here.

Medicine/Health

At the June meeting of the CDC’s revamped Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP), Dr Martin Kulldorff, the committee’s new co-chair announced the committee was forming two new work groups. One group would look at the cumulative effect of the childhood and adolescent vaccination schedules, and another would look at vaccines that have not been reviewed in more than seven years. -More here.

The CDC’s new Covid-19 vaccine working group has released its Terms of Reference. The ACIP working group now has a mandate unlike anything the committee has ever undertaken. For the first time, federal advisers will investigate the unresolved issues that have dogged the vaccines since their rushed rollout in late 2020. From DNA contamination in the manufacturing process to the persistence of spike protein and mRNA in the body, from immune class switching following repeated boosting to safety in pregnancy, cardiovascular risks, and long-term disability, the list of questions is as sweeping as it is sensitive. -More here.

The Vaccine Reaction writes: “The loss of trust in the medical profession since 2020 is altering the misconception that American Academy of Pediatricians-like medical societies are primarily altruistic, dedicated to the welfare of others rather than their members.” The recent publication of AAP priorities should reinforce this loss of trust. Their first priority is to eliminate non-medical exemptions to vaccinating children. "The AAP will almost certainly continue its path of child polypharmacy, blind adherence to protocols based on the products of their sponsors, and denigration and exclusion of the opinions of parents who recognize the stark reality of deteriorating health in North American children. Parents reading the AAP's list of priorities would be foolhardy to then entrust their children to such care. Fundamental rights of each human to make their own way in life, and protect and oversee their children, underpin any decent societal model. In fascist societies, such decisions are removed and taken into the hands of experts and authoritarian institutions. The people must simply comply as slaves. Medical professions and their academies have a long history of supporting such approaches, and the AAP seems increasingly determined to replicate that path. It should receive all the respect that such an indecent approach deserves." - More here.

Telling It Like It Is / Truth Bombs

"We are living in a point in history where so many, if not all, of the foundational pillars of our society are being questioned. In some cases, those pillars are almost wholly being cast aside. Once the cornerstones of our American backbone, we are finding ourselves doubting it all as we ask ourselves and one another... Can the government truly be that corrupt? Are the courts actually compromised? Are major media outlets really just mouthpieces for propaganda? Is modern medicine a sham?" – Bobbie Anne - More here.

According to Rachel Abramovitz – "Politics is a game of 'Divide and Rule' and 'We the People' are the ones being played! Don't fall into the trap of all Muslims are evil, or all Jews are evil. Real Muslims and Real Jews get along! Dehumanizing the other side is classic manipulation through fear and is used as a justification to commit immoral acts. Don't lose your moral compass! The difference between Good and Evil is that Good makes us love and care for one another, while Evil makes us fear and hate the other."

Arundhati Roy has said: "The trouble is that once you see it, you can't unsee it. And once you've seen it, keeping quiet, saying nothing, becomes as political an act as speaking out. There's no innocence. Either way, you're accountable."

Mikki Willis adds his thoughts on silence: "No one silences us more effectively than we silence ourselves. The outcome of needing to be liked is fragile, fake relationships. Instead of bonding through love... We bond through agreement. But when relationships are built on unspoken agreements... What happens the moment we disagree? The bond breaks. And often... The relationship breaks with it. Truly solid relationships aren't bonded by agreement. They're built on respect for contrast... On curiosity about different beliefs and perspectives. When love is real... It isn't threatened by disagreement. It's deepened by it. Perhaps the real power isn't found in being constantly liked. Perhaps the true liberation comes from caring less about how we're perceived. Not to become cold to life or others... But to become free from the illusion of external validation."

Inspiration/Words of Wisdom

Inspirational words from Mikki Willis: "Over the past five years I've asked every dissenting doctor, scientist, and whistleblower the same question at the end of our interviews. 'Do you have any regrets for speaking out?' Without hesitation... they all answered... 'No.' In fact the majority described what felt like a spiritual phenomenon. For the first time in their lives they were experiencing the kind of freedom that comes only from being in service to truth." Willis says: "I can relate. The moment I stopped playing it safe was the moment I was consumed by a peace I'd never known. It was Jesus Christ who said... 'You shall know the truth... and the truth shall make you free.' That's not just theology. It's a roadmap to liberation. So I ask you again... What are you still afraid of? Losing your job? Losing customers? Losing friends? Here's what I've learned from being willing to lose all of that. That's when fate reveals itself. When you're truly in service to people... to truth... to life itself... something sacred happens. The benevolent forces of the universe step in."

Britain Sliding Into Oldest Trap in the Book, & The Government is Laying the Bait

From: Craig Lancaster

Britain is sliding into the oldest trap in the book - and the government is laying the bait. Across towns and cities, ordinary people protesting the collapse of their communities are being met not just by police lines but by choreographed mobs of left-wing activists, bussed in under banners like Stand Up to Racism. This isn't spontaneous counter-protest. It's state-sanctioned provocation.

The pattern is clear. Locals rally outside migrant hotels to demand their closure. Counter-demonstrators, backed by NGOs and shielded by police, descend to brand them "racist." The two sides clash. Cameras roll. The headlines write themselves: far-right violence, public order crisis, threat to democracy. Suddenly, the story isn't the government's betrayal over immigration - it's the need for more powers, more crackdowns, more control. This is how you turn legitimate dissent into criminality. By baiting it, inflaming it, and then using it as the pretext for repression. The government doesn't fear the leftist mobs because those mobs serve their purpose. They fear the ordinary British majority that is waking up.. Read more here.

Kiwi Ferns Rugby Star Dies While Taking Nap in Car

A former NRLW Warriors star died while taking a nap in an Auckland McDonald's carpark after a long-haul flight from a rugby tournament in Japan, the coroner has revealed.

Fourteen-test Kiwi Ferns forward Kath Wharton (nee Keremete) was found unresponsive in her vehicle by her husband on November 21 last year. Despite efforts to resuscitate her, she was pronounced dead at the scene.

A post-mortem examination of the 41-year-old's body determined her cause of death was a sudden cardiac arrest, Associate Coroner Hannah Cheeseman said in her findings released publicly on Thursday.

It also found that Wharton had Covid-19 at the time. However there were no significant lung changes identified as a cause of death. Read more here.
